

40, WHITEHALL STR. ATLANTA, GA. April 19th 1890.

Director U.S. Mint.
Philadelphia.
Dear Sir -

As the owner of a $5. gold coin, 1822. I am desirous of knowing the reason of its being considered of greater value by coin collectors, than other dates of that period.

Trusting that I have taken no undue liberty in thus addressing you for the desired information, I am
With respect yours
J.M. Alexander.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 162

J.M. Alexander & Co.

Dealers in Hardware, Iron, Nails, Carriage Material, Millstones & Bolting Cloth.

Atlanta, Ga.

April 19, 1890

Director U.S. Mint

Philadelphia

Dear Sir –

As the owner of a $5 gold coin, 1822, I am desirous of knowing the reason of its being considered of greater value by coin collectors than other dates of that period.

Trusting that I have taken no undue liberty in thus addressing you for the desired information, I am

With respect yours &c.

J.M. Alexander